Chamber Monthly, December 2009

President's Corner

Thanksgiving is upon us...family, friends, food, and a time to give thanks. As President, I would like to give thanks to you, all the volunteers that have helped raise so much money for Revere student scholarships, the Richfield Town Trust, and the chamber itself including my fellow officers and committee chairs. Thank you.

Thank you also to all of you who came to last month's lunch where Bob Coppedge spoke about the importance of data/network security. Also at last month's lunch, we had two prize drawings, one for a free ad in this month's newsletter and another for a copy of Microsoft's new Windows 7, which was kindly donated by Bob Coppedge. The winner of the ad was Paul Swan - Swan Plumbing and Heating, and the winner of the Windows 7 was Jack Braun - C M Thornton Corporation. Congratulations to the both of you. . . and thank you for attending the lunches

December's lunch meeting will feature Andy Clayton. He will be speaking about the very important topic of succession planning. What do you need to do as a business owner to position your business for a smooth and successful transition? Whether your succession transition plans are
