SEPTEMBER 2025

Scenic Railroad excursion is sold out Bring your tickets!

Thank you to everyone who purchased tickets to the Chamber's excursion on the Cuyahoga Valley Scenic Railroad. The Sept. 15 ride on the historic rail line promises to be a fun evening ushering in our beautiful fall season.

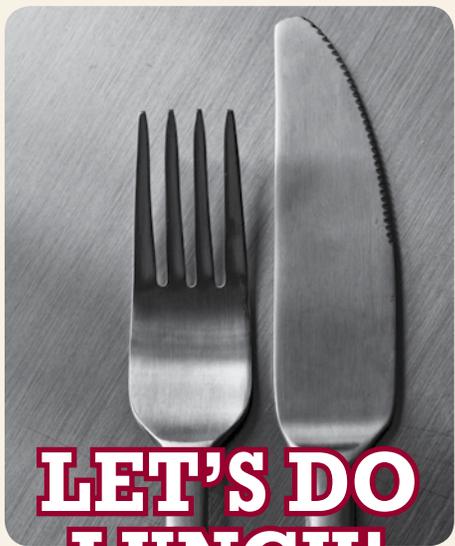

The train will start boarding at 5 p.m. at the Peninsula Depot, 1630 Mill St. in Peninsula (just west of Winking Lizard.) Parking is at the Lock 29 lot, 1648 Mill St., and at the overflow lot, immediately north of the Lock 29 lot.

The Chamber has reserved two seated cars, plus an open-air car where passengers can mingle. This car will have the bar and Sweet Table. The buffet dinner will also be served in this car.

Your paper tickets are required to be admitted to the train.

Get ready to sit back and enjoy the scenery, possible wildlife, and a delicious dinner.

Our September Speakers

Kelly Coffman, Principal Planner, Cleveland Metroparks

Preserving natural areas and connecting people to the outdoors have shaped Kelly's 35-year career. Her role as principal planner at Cleveland Metroparks includes leading park and strategic planning efforts for the 25,000-acre regional park system. Kelly co-manages the Cleveland Harbor Eastern Embayment Resilience Strategy effort to transform Cleveland's east side Lake Erie waterfront. She works to coordinate plans, projects, and partnerships across the park district.

Z. Seth Keller, P.E. Project Manager, Cleveland Metroparks

As project manager for the Cleveland Metroparks planning and design team, Seth is responsible for overseeing multiple construction projects throughout the park district. Prior to joining the Metroparks, Seth consulted on multiple Wisconsin DOT and municipal projects around Milwaukee, WI metro. Seth also served as a project engineer for a heavy civil construction company based in Oregon, OH working on major highway and mass site grading projects.

Seth holds a Bachelor of Science degree in civil engineering from the University of Toledo with a minor in business administration. He is also a registered professional engineer in the state of Ohio. Seth resides in Rocky River with his wife and son.

Antiques Detective will evaluate antiques

Discover the value of a favorite flea market find or treasured family heirloom at the Richfield Historical Society's Antiques Detective program.

This is the society's version of an antique roadshow. The program will be held Saturday, Sept. 13, at Richfield Fellowship Hall. A local professional with over 37 years of experience collecting and dealing in antiques will evaluate artifacts for $5 each from 11 a.m.-1 p.m.

There is a limit of three items per person. Participant check in begins at 10:30 a.m. Advance registration is required. Contact Karen at kls1650@roadrunner.com or 330-659-4750.

SeptemberFest is Sept. 27

Oviatt House is celebrating the beginning of fall at its SeptemberFest on Sept. 27, 11 a.m.-3 p.m.

Enjoy activities for all ages, including raffles, food, house tours, and more. This is Oviatt House's largest fundraising and community event of the year, with all proceeds applied to the Open the Doors to History capital campaign.

Oviatt House is listed on the National Park Service Network to Freedom for its role in the Underground Railroad.
